ABOUT THE AWARDS

The CGIUKI Awards ceremony is the largest event of its kind in the UK and the highlight of the governance social calendar.

For over 20 years, the CGIUKI Awards reward the work and achievements of companies, teams and individuals from across the governance profession.

Along with awards recognising rising stars, established professionals, outstanding contributors and service providers, there are prizes for transformational projects, innovation in diversity and inclusion, ESG that goes above and beyond, reports, and disclosures.

We have ten categories open for entries and this year, the 2025 sees the programme evolve, as we introduce two new categories. We

The shortlist will be invited to attend the glittering awards ceremony and dinner in London. If you'd like to read up on previous winners, take a look at our previous winners.

The 2025 programme is open for entries until 25 July 2025.

WHY ENTER?

Winning an CGIUKI Award helps set organisations apart from their competitors and provides the opportunity to engage internal teams and celebrate your achievements.

Putting your organisation forward offers a chance to:

- Reflect and evaluate – Look back on your governance initiatives and projects and compare them against your peers.
- Receive external recognition - Leading experts in governance will decide winners through a scrupulous judging process. Entering is a great chance to reinforce your corporate reputation.
- Engage stakeholders - Commend your internal teams and recognise their work at prestigious awards ceremony on 4 November 2025, in London.
- Evidence excellence - To win or to be shortlisted, shows that your organisation delivers good governance to an exception standard.

If shortlisted, you'll be joining an illustrious roll call of past winners. Winning can be a great boost to team morale, as efforts and hard work have been recognised and benchmarked in a competitive field.
